

SEC

4/12/93

STRAW POLL OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE VIEWS

MATTERS CONTAINED IN FCFA REVISION OF CH 28

Special Collections
VW Faculty Senate Records
Accession # 99-102
Box 41

Does this make a significant improvement in the current Chapter 28?

1. Requiring the Provost to make a judgment regarding the reasonable cause of a dean's allegations against a faculty member:
2. Requiring the Provost to submit the case to a Hearing Committee before initiating any action against a faculty member:
3. Requiring administrators to use the Office of Human Rights to investigate matters involving alleged discrimination rather than a special investigating committee of faculty:
4. Encouraging mediation/conciliation at a number of distinct places in the procedures:
5. Using Brief Adjudicative Proceedings to handle minor disputes:
6. Engaging the services of attorneys as Hearing Officers:
7. Having Brief Adjudication Procedures conducted by the Hearing Officer alone:
8. Reducing the size of Hearing Panels from six (including one alternate) to three (or five) faculty--plus a presiding Hearing Officer:
9. Awarding no more than a tie-breaking vote to the Hearing Officer, and so avoiding one reason for having alternates:
10. Including two staff/student members on the Hearing Panels in specified cases:
11. Requiring a representatively diverse Hearing Panel:
12. Awarding nonparty participant status to alleged victims:
13. Establishing the standard of review as a preponderance of the evidence:
14. Allowing the administrative officers to be represented by legal counsel even when the faculty member chooses not to:
15. Empowering the President to reverse a Hearing Committee's decision without remanding the matter to the Committee:
16. Enabling the President to amend the remedy recommended by the Hearing Committee without a remand:

	YES		NO
1.	4*	7	3	4
2.	3	9	1	2
3.	3	5	4	5
4.	7	10	1	1
5.	3	9	2	3
6.	3	9	1	1
7.	5	8	2	3
8.	4	5	3	4
9.	5	7	2	4
10.	3	5	4	6
11.	4	6	2	3
12.	2	4	2	6
13.	3	4	4	5
14.	0	7	4	11
15.	1	3	3	5
16.	3	5	3	5

..... OVER .....

* For each question, The top number given is of voting members of the SEC, The bottom number of nonvoting, ex officio members

